Clubwomen Hear Reports of Committee Members.

St. Louis.-The executive board of the Missouri State Federation of Women's Clubs held its session in the Hamilton hotel.

Mrs. C. W. Greene of Columbia, reporting for the home economics committee, had not a word to say about cooking, probably taking it for granted clubwomen know as much as it is possible for them to learn on that subject. She showed how necessary public health is to the happiness of the home and advocated the passage of a law that will require persons about to marry to have certificates of health. She spoke of the work that may be done to lessen infant mortality and danger from contagious dis-

The club women of Missouri now have a fund of $1,200 which is loaned to deserving girls, three of whom are taking advantage of this fund to attend the University of Missouri, while one is at the state normal school at Cape Girardeau, she said.

Methodists Rap Home Rule, Dexter.-At the third day's session of the annual St. Louis Methodist Episcopal conference here the committee on temperance and Sabbath observance made a strong objection to Sunday diversions and a wide-open Sabbath for the large cities of the state. This report also put the conference on record as opposing home rule for the large cities, for, in the opinion of the conference, it means saloon rule.
